Court GRANTS IN PART Plaintiff's Motion for Extension of Time, as to filing an Opposition to the 99 Motion for Summary Judgment, to 1/30/2017; Defendant shall file their reply 30 days thereafter. No further extensions by Plaintiff will be granted. (Court Reporter: Jeff Hook). (kt) (Entered: 12/07/2016)
12/07/2016		MINUTE ORDER: In light of Plaintiff's long delay in responding to Defendant's motion for summary judgment 99 and in order to avoid further delay in resolving that long-pending motion, the Court directs that Plaintiff postpone the filing of a cross-motion for summary judgment, if any, until after the Court has resolved Defendant's motion for summary judgment. If the Court concludes that Defendant's motion for summary judgment should be denied in whole or in part, it will then set a separate briefing schedule that will permit Plaintiff to file his own motion for summary judgment. Filing a cross-motion for summary judgment at this time, however, will extend the current briefing schedule even further and will unfairly delay completion of briefing on a motion that Defendant filed six months ago and that, to date, has gone unanswered. Signed by Judge Randolph D. Moss on 12/7/2016. (lcrdm1,) (Entered: 12/07/2016)

Plaintiff's renewed motion for appointment of counsel is hereby held in abeyance pending his IFP status and the Court's ruling on summary judgment. (Court Reporter: Jeff Hook). 02/24/2017		MINUTE ORDER: At the hearing to consider Sai's request to submit additional affidavits and exhibits to his late–filed opposition to the TSA's motion for summary judgment, the Court permitted Sai to file 20 sample documents that were produced to the ACLU but not to him or that were produced with different redactions. The Court explicitly instructed that it "d[id] not want any legal argument," and it limited Sai's supplemental filing to "20 samples" and a declaration identifying the documents. Within two hours of the conclusion of the hearing, Sai submitted the 20 permitted sample documents, a "supplemental affidavit" [116–1], and, in direct contravention of the Court's instructions, a "supplemental brief in opposition to MSJ," 116 . Moreover,

		Sai's supplemental affidavit includes multiple paragraphs of argument. Accordingly, the Court hereby STRIKES Sai's "supplemental brief" 116 and paragraphs 8 through 20 of his "supplemental affidavit" [116-1] for failure to comply with the Court's directives. Sai is admonished that future violations of the Court's orders may result in the imposition of sanctions. The TSA's time to reply to Sai's opposition to the TSA's motion for summary judgment, as supplemented by the 20 sample documents, is hereby extended until March 9, 2017. After reviewing that brief, the Court will determine whether any additional briefing addressing the 20 sample documents, or any additional evidentiary submission, is appropriate.
